

Beau James Thomas

Books that connect art, learning, and the search for meaning.

Morgan Hill, California | Libraries, schools, bookstores, and creative partners

ABOUT BEAU

Beau James Thomas is a California-based artist, author, and educator whose work moves between the studio, the classroom, and the page. His books explore the histories behind creative communities, offer practical approaches to inclusive art education, and invite readers into spiritual reflection and Christian encouragement.

EDUCATION & ARTISTIC PRACTICE

MFA in Studio Art, Mills College, 2021. BA in Visual and Public Art, California State University, Monterey Bay, 2019. Artist-in-Residence, Monterey Regional Waste Management District, 2019.

FOUR COLLECTIONS

Hidden Art History

California artists, communities, places, and the stories behind them.

Artist Educator

Inclusive art-making, accessible classrooms, and creative thinking.

Reiki

Dedicated collections exploring Reiki traditions and spiritual practices.

Jesus Will Help You

Christian encouragement for confidence and everyday challenges.

EVENT & COLLABORATION INQUIRIES

Suggested topics include California art history, inclusive art education, creative confidence, and the connection between visual art and writing. Contact Beau to discuss author talks, school visits, workshops, local-history projects, book stocking, or bulk orders. Availability and terms are arranged by inquiry.

START HERE

Pacific Visionaries: California's Rich Art History | ISBN 9798171941833

Art for Every Child: Inclusive Techniques for Diverse Learners | ISBN 9798252903255

The Studio Mindset: Teaching Students to Think Like Artists | ISBN 9798253007174